> Further to your email below and my initial call with Robert Leach, I wanted to write in advance of our call on 31 March. In particular, I want to make sure we are on the same page regarding the scope of your request, as the email below departs from the matters discussed on our initial call. I understood that your request was for a voluntary informal interview (outside of the official Mutual Legal Assistance Treaty process). My understanding from the call was that it was an informational interview only and that general topics, as well as any specific documents, would be disclosed to us in advance. The email below, however, refers to obtaining "a complete, voluntary, production of documents from E&Y". That was not my understanding of the voluntary, informal approach proposed. Can you please confirm that my initial understanding is correct? Also, I want to take this opportunity to let you know that we have recently appointed external counsel, Orrick (Jonathan Lopez, copied) to assist us in this matter, and I have asked Jonathan to join our call on 31 March.

We have a high level need to learn more about E&Y's audit opinion on the restated 2010 statutory accounts, obtain a complete, voluntary, production of documents from E&Y, and meet with you and David Hales during our upcoming trip to London during the first two weeks of May. That is a lot to accomplish in one month. So, I hope to speak soon and start to dig into the this process. Please let me know when we can do that. Thank you, Adam

> Bill: I have been referred to you by Susan Resley at Morgan Lewis. AUSA Bob Leach and I are investigating the facts and circumstances surrounding HP's acquisition of Autonomy in 2011. It is our understanding that E&Y audited HP's restatement of Autonomy's 2010 statutory accounts in the UK. Susan suggested that I reach out to you at E&Y about our interest in this subject and, specifically, our interest in speaking with the E&Y engagement partner, David Hales. Please let me know if there is a good time for us to discuss this further by telephone. Thanks, Adam
